IN SOCIETY'S REALM.

The Orlo club met with Mrs. Will Byrd at the regular meeting date last week. To the roll call the members responded with an Indian legend. Mrs. Byrd was leader for the afternoon and gave as her paper a well prepared sketch of the life of Hayden. Mrs. Elizabeth Myers gave "The Prince" as a reading which was enjoyed by the club. Mrs. McElroy played a number of selections on the piano. Miss Byron Weston was the guest of the club and played a few selections on the piano. The very appropriate subject of Oklahoma and Indian Territory was the discussion for table talk. Places of interest in the Indian Territory was the subject for discussion. A number of these places were illustrated with pictures. Mrs. McCann was critic for the afternoon. The club adjourned to meet with Mrs. McCann April 20.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Simpson entertained the Euchre club Thursday evening of the past week at their home in the southwest part of the city. About ten couples were present and the game was very interesting. Mrs. John Nichols won the club prize, Sub Almond the guest prize and Mrs. Lowden the consolation prize. Delightful refreshments were served after the play. Those who attended were: Messrs. and Mesdames Fred Gates, E. E. Guillot, H. B. Bracy, J. N. Dodson, H. L. Cannon, W. C. Dean, H. L. Crockett and Bob Poland; Mesdames Bertha White-Whiteman and John Nichols, and Lowden and Mr. Sub Almond. Mr. and Mrs. Walter C. Dean will entertain the club next Thursday evening.

No Hatless Girls This Summer.
There will be no hatless girl this summer, at least at Newport and other summer resorts. Women who go abroad a great deal, finding that only the peasant women go without hats, have come to the conclusion that Americans cannot afford the comfort of going hatless. In Europe no lady ever goes outside her home without hat and gloves, and these considerations count for something with American girls, who will wear pretty summer hats this year, and the milliners will rejoice.

Trying for a Monument to Lee.
The ladies of Washington who are daughters of the Confederacy are making brave efforts to have a monument erected to the memory of Fitz Hugh Lee before the opening of the Jamestown exposition. Virginia's legislature failed to pass a bill making an appropriation for this purpose but the ladies hope to build the monument with the aid of their friends.

The Whist Club met with Miss Vera Olive Thursday afternoon at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Suggs on North Washington street. The guests assembled at 2:30 and the play continued until 5 o'clock. About thirty guests were present. Refreshments were served. Miss Julia Blake and Mrs. Bud Conlee tied on the score for the club prize, and cut cards, winning it. Mrs. J. H. Kahn won the guest prize and Miss Bessie Riggins the consolation. The club will meet with Mrs. McNaught at the next meeting date.

Her Answer.
A girl in a town not many miles from Ardmore got a proposal of marriage with the request that she answer by telegram. She went to the telegraph office and asked the operator how many words she could send for a quarter. He said ten, and her answer was: "Yes, yes, yes, yes, yes, yes, yes, yes, yes, yes."

The Elks entertained last Friday with an informal dance which was greatly enjoyed. The cool weather brought out a large number and the followers of the terpsichorean art tipped the light fantastic until a late hour. The music was excellent, being furnished by a string orchestra of five pieces which added to the enjoyment of the occasion.

Mrs. Jack Scanlon of Marietta and little son are spending a few days with Miss Lena Gardenaire. Mrs. Scanlon has a host of friends in the city.

Miss Cleve Fitzgerald, an attractive young lady of Dallas, is in the city, the guest of Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Guillot.

Mrs. Ed Ringer has returned from a visit to Chickasha. While in Chickasha Mrs. Ringer was the guest of Mesdames J. E. and M. F. Cheney.

Mrs. C. B. McCluskey of Davis, after a pleasant visit to the city has returned home.

Mrs. Homer Wilson and baby of Depson are in the city. Mrs. Wilson is the guest of Mrs. T. A. Ledbetter.

Athletic Club Entertains.
Marietta, I. T., April 14.—(Special.)—The Athletic Club of this city entertained last evening with their initial ball. The first effort of the club was a great success. The club has only been organized a short while and this is the first entertainment they have had, but many are to follow, as the Athletic Club will be among the foremost social clubs of the city. Those who attended the dance were: Misses Annie Rice, Vera and Cora Ritchie, Julia Wolfenbarger, Harriett Butler, Ida Carter, Witherspoon and Jessie Schneider, Mr. and Mrs. Bo Blake and Mr. and Mrs. Cuth Smith, Messrs. Chas. Morris, N. Cinnamon, Nathan Sams, K. Jones of Dallas, Jim Miller, Harry Kirkpatrick, Shelton Askew, Richard Maulding and John Wicker.

You ought to see the pretty Easter novelties we are showing. Some of these would afford your little ones much pleasure. They're inexpensive.

F. J. RAMSEY, Druggist.
The 4-year-old child of Mr. and Mrs. Barlow that was bitten by a spider last Wednesday, died Thursday night. The remains were taken to Warrens Bend this morning for interment. Mr. Barlow carries the mail on one of the rural routes out of Chickasha.—Chickasha Register.

Rheumatism Makes Life Miserable.
A happy home is the most valuable possession that is within the reach of mankind, but you cannot enjoy its comforts if you are suffering with rheumatism. You throw aside business cares when you enter your home and you can be relieved from those rheumatic pains by applying Chamberlain's Pain Balm. One application will give you relief and its continued use for a short time will bring about a permanent cure. For sale by F. J. Ramsey, W. B. Frame, Ardmore Drug Co., Bonner & Bonner.

Those who want the best perfumes made will find here the choicest odors of foreign and American production. Buy your Easter perfumes here.
